

Total Sustainability Courses and Courses that Include Sustainability by Department

	Subject Code	Department	Subject	Notes
1	CHEN	Artie McFerrin Department of Chemical Engineering
2	IBUS	Center for International Business		Center
3	AGLS	College of Agriculture and Life Sciences		College
5	LBAR	College of Liberal Arts		College
6	SCEN	College of Science		College
7	ACCT	Accounting
8	AERO	Aerospace Engineering
9	AGEC	Agricultural Economics
10	AGCJ, AGSC, ALEC, ALED	Agricultural Leadership, Education, and Communications
11	ANSC	Animal Science
12	ANTH	Anthropology
13	ARCH, ENDS	Architecture
14	ATMO	Atmospheric Sciences
15	BICH, GENE	Biochemistry and Biophysics
16	AGSM, BAEN	Biological and Agricultural Engineering
17	BIOL	Biology
18	COMM	Communication
19	COSC	Construction Science
20	ECON	Economics
21	ESSM, RENR	Ecosystem Science and Management
22	EDAD, EHRD	Educational Admin. and Human Resource Dev.
23	BEFB, EPFB, EPSY, SEFB, SPED, SPSY	Educational Psychology
24	ECEN	Electrical and Computer Engineering
25	ENTC, IDIS	Engineering Technology and Industrial Distribution
26	ENGL, LING	English
27	ENTO	Entomology
28	GEOG	Geography
29	GEOL	Geology and Geophysics
30	HEFB, HLTH, KINE, KNFB, SPMT	Health & Kinesiology
31	HISP, SPAN	Hispanic Studies
32	HIST	History
33	HORT	Horticulture Sciences
34	INFO*, ISYS, SCMT	Information and Operations Management

* An academic department is an administrative division of a college, university, or school faculty that is devoted to a particular academic discipline (e.g. Economics, Environmental Science, Sociology). Departments may exist under other nomenclature and with coarser or finer divisions, depending upon each institution's context. Fields of study, programs, subject areas or the equivalent may be considered to be "departments" in the absence of traditional administrative divisions.
